

Community Wellness Program for People with Parkinson's Disease

Have you had difficulty beginning or sustaining a regular exercise program? The Boston University Center for Neurorehabilitation has an evidence based group exercise program for people with Parkinson's disease that gives you the tools to get started with exercise and keep going. These groups have been helping people in Western Massachusetts since 2009.

A new group will be starting at the JCC in Springfield October 17, 2018.

Under the guidance of a licensed physical therapist participants will learn:

- An exercise and balance program specifically designed to meet the needs of persons with Parkinson's disease
- Education regarding various evidence based exercise ideas to include in your weekly schedule
- Problem-solving approaches and strategies that can help you more effectively manage challenges you may experience related to daily mobility to enhance quality of life

Course Information:

- Jewish Community Center - 1160 Dickinson Street, Springfield MA 01108
- Wednesdays and Fridays 1:00-2:30 PM
- Wednesday October 17th through Wednesday December 5th (discharge evaluation day)
